

NAAE Two-Year Postsecondary Representative to the National Council for Agricultural Education (The Council)

NAAE is seeking candidates to serve as the NAAE Two-Year Postsecondary Representative to the National Council for Agricultural Education (The Council).

This position provides an important opportunity to ensure the perspectives, needs, and expertise of two-year postsecondary agricultural educators are represented in national conversations impacting agricultural education. The selected representative will serve as a voice for NAAE's two-year postsecondary membership while contributing to The Council's work to strengthen and advance agricultural education across the country.

We are looking for an engaged two-year postsecondary agricultural educator who is passionate about the future of agricultural education, willing to bring forward the perspectives of their colleagues, and interested in contributing to national-level leadership and collaboration.

The NAAE Two-Year Postsecondary Representative to The Council will:

- Represent NAAE and two-year postsecondary agricultural education community on The Council.
- Participate in meetings, discussions, and initiatives of The Council.
- Provide the two-year postsecondary perspective on issues, opportunities, and strategies impacting agricultural education.
- Communicate with NAAE leadership and two-year postsecondary members regarding relevant Council activities.
- Help strengthen connections between secondary, two-year postsecondary, teacher education, state staff, industry, and other partners across the agricultural education community.

Serving in this role is an opportunity to help shape conversations about the future of agricultural education while ensuring two-year postsecondary educators have a strong and meaningful voice at the national level.

If you are interested in being considered, please submit your resume, cover letter, and MOU by October 15th to asmith.naae@uky.edu.

We encourage you to consider this opportunity, or to encourage a two-year postsecondary colleague who would bring a thoughtful and engaged voice to this important national leadership role.
