

February 2018

To: New Jersey FFA Chapter Advisors/Agricultural Education Instructors

From: Nancy J. Trivette, State Program Leader, Food, Agriculture and Natural Resources Education/ State FFA Advisor
Erin E. Noble, State FFA Specialist

Re: New Jersey Teach Agriculture Lunch and Learn
Thursday, February 22, 2018, 12:00 pm – 2:00 pm
The College of New Jersey
Brower Student Center 104
2000 Pennington Rd
Ewing Township, NJ 08628

Registration is due Wednesday, February 14, 2018

CONFERENCE DETAILS

This is a special event within Advocacy and Legislative Leadership Day that is open to students who are interested in becoming teachers of agriculture. Students will attend all scheduled events for ALLD before 12:00pm and after 2:00pm. Check-in will be outside BSC 104 at noon. The Lunch and Learn will end by 2:00 pm where students will attend their assigned workshop during the ALLD workshop breakout session. Participants will receive workshop materials and lunch. SPECIAL NOTE: The Lunch & Learn is FREE; however, students who register for this portion of ALLD still need to be added to the chapter's ALLD participant list!

EVENT OVERVIEW

Overarching objectives include:

- Connect with other students who also want to become teachers of agriculture
- Explore more about agricultural education with State FFA President Renee Stillwell
- Interact with current Ag Teachers during “Ag Teacher Speed Networking”
- Hear from a special keynote speaker about why you should become a teacher of agriculture!

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

Registration is due Wednesday, February 14, 2018. Please register at the following link:

<https://form.jotform.com/NJFFA/ALLDTeachAgRSVP>

a project of funded by

